

Submission Guidelines

Undergraduate Research Journal of Micronesia (UOG Edition)

- Writing Format: APA, MLA, or Chicago (students should follow the format and literary conventions required in their respective programs and disciplines)
- Type of Data: Qualitative, Quantitative, or Mixed Method
- Topics/Themes: Topics/themes addressed should be local/regional-focused
- Page Requirements: 10 pages minimum (8,000 words), 25 pages maximum (20,000 words), including title page, abstract, tables/figures, and references
- Mentor: Students must identify a mentor when they submit their manuscript; this mentor must be a University of Guam professor who assisted with their research and/or writing process
- Cover Sheet: Should include the author's name, address, phone number, email address, title of the work, program, and the following statement (author's consent to publish): "I, (write your name) of (write your address) hereby assign first serial rights, online archival rights, and journal rights in the work entitled "Title of Work" to the University of Guam Press. I warrant that I am the sole author/artist of the work, and that the work does not infringe the copyrights, trademarks, or other rights of another person."
- Other Formatting Guidelines:
 - All manuscripts should be well-written (manuscripts with major grammatical and spelling errors may not be considered).
 - Manuscripts must reflect original work done by the named author(s); all authors must be named.
 - All identification of the authors must be removed from the manuscript (and instead placed on the cover sheet).
 - Manuscripts should be submitted in .doc, .docx, or .pdf format. If a PDF is submitted, an editable version should be ready for presentation upon request.

For other questions, please email MARC Publications Editor Kisha Borja-Quichocho:
kquichocho@triton.uog.edu