THE UNIVERSITY OF GUAM SOLICITS APPLICATIONS TO ESTABLISH A LIST OF ELIGIBLES FOR THE FOLLOWING POSITION (TENURE/NON-TENURE TRACK APPOINTMENT, FULL-/PART-TIME, SUBJECT TO THE AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS):

#007-17 ASSISTANT PROFESSOR TO ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR (TECHNICAL SERVICES LIBRARIAN)

Location:	Learning Resources
University Information:	The University of Guam is the premier institution of higher education in the Western Pacific. It is a land-grant institution, accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges Senior Commission. Located in the village of Mangilao on the island of Guam, the campus overlooks beautiful Pago Bay and the University's world-class Marine Biology Lab. The University has approximately 3,900 students, 90% of Asian or Pacific Islander ancestry, providing a uniquely diverse campus and multicultural atmosphere. As a regional, comprehensive, open admissions institution, the university awards degrees at the baccalaureate and master's levels through its two colleges and three professional schools. Over the next five years, the University will be entering an exciting period of growth linked to anticipated increases in military investments and resultant economic expansion in Guam. Three major University initiatives have been developed to maximize academic and community opportunities during this period: "UOG, the Natural Choice" to encourage local students to aspire to attend college and to choose the University of Guam; "UOG Green" with renewable energy and sustainability central to the initiative; and "UOG Leading Change" on Guam and in Micronesia. Extramural funding from competitive Federal sources as well as contracts is rapidly expanding. Such opportunities along with a critical mass of dedicated and capable administration, faculty, students, and staff make the University of Guam an exciting place to be for many years to come. Information on the University's campus security and fire safety may be accessed at http://www.uog.edu/hro (Under Links).
General Description:	The University of Guam is looking for an individual who is interested in new challenges and opportunities for professional and personal growth. This position calls for someone who is self-motivated and adaptable, intelligent, possesses a global vision and who is interested in working in a dynamic, multi-cultural institution.
Unit Description:	The Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Library is the largest library in Micronesia and holds more than fifteen print and media collections. These collections include more than 96,456 print titles, 124,684 print holdings, over 925,693 microfilm/microfiche units, 1,527 print serial titles, 184,844 print serial issues, over 4,946 non-print media items, and over forty units of audiovisual software. The library also has subscriptions to over fifty-eight online journal databases holding over 39,190 unique titles that offer a wide range of full-text, peer-reviewed articles. The 35,000 square foot building offers three audio/visual classrooms, nine conference rooms, a graduate research center, and a computer-equipped literacy classroom. It serves students, faculty, staff, and the general public who utilize the following services: access to online journal databases, internet workstations, conference and study space, information literacy instruction, library tours, audiovisual equipment, assistive technology, interlibrary loan, and graduate assistance. The RFK Library is a unit of the WASC-accredited University of Guam and proudly extends its support to several of the university's programs of study, institutional research, and grant funded projects. It also serves as the regional depository for Government Documents. Visit the library at www.uog.edu/library.
Character of Duties:	The library seeks a dynamic and enthusiastic reference librarian who will provide information services to students, faculty and staff; provide leadership in the development of collections that support University programs and research; coordinate with vendors and faculty in acquiring library material in print and other media; provide Information Literacy instruction to student and neighboring communities, including face-to-face and online formats; provide leadership for original and complex copy cataloging of current and new items using Online Computer Library Center (OCLC) and SirsiDynix systems; oversee cataloging and acquisitions staff; coordinate and work with other faculty in team teaching activities. The cooperative nature of the duties specified demand that chosen candidates maintain collegiality and professionalism. All other appropriate duties are as required, and candidates will be working some nights and weekends. The individuals will report to the library director.
Qualifications:	Minimum: Master's degree in Library Science (MLS) or Master's Degree in Library and Information Science (MLIS) from an American Library Association (ALA) accredited library school and a U.S. regionally accredited institution or foreign equivalent. Knowledge of current cataloging tools and techniques, including the Anglo-American Cataloguing Rules, Second Edition (AACR2), Machine-Readable Cataloging 21 (MARC 21), Resource Description and Access (RDA), and Dublin Core. Experience in information literacy and reference instruction. Proficiency with technology as it relates to information resources and services. Familiarity and knowledge of electronic scholarly databases such as Elton B. Stephens Company (EBSCO), Journal Storage (JSTOR) and ProQuest. Able to work in a multi-cultural and multi-ethnic institution and learning environment. Strong interpersonal communication and public service skills. Knowledge and application of learning styles and teaching methods. Ability to meet academic promotion and tenure requirements, including but not limited to active participation in University and community service and in self-initiated research projects leading to publications. Must be willing to teach online. Preferred: A minimum of two (2) years cataloging and acquisitions experience in the past five (5) years with integrated library systems and electronic resources. Technical experience with SirsiDynix integrated library system. Technical experience with OCLC and DSpace. Familiarity with Marcive WEBDOCS and/or other document subscription services including uploading document records in the library catalog. Recent academic instruction and reference experience. Experience in providing instruction with e-Learning platforms (Moodle, Blackboard, etc.). Ability to interact with students, faculty and staff in a courteous, professional, and collegial manner. Experience in researching and writing grants to promote the library and the university.

Work Eligibility:

Submission of completed job applications authorizes the University of Guam to seek and obtain information regarding the applicant's suitability for employment. All factors which are job related may be investigated (i.e., previous employment, educational credentials, and criminal records). All information obtained may be used to determine the applicant's eligibility for employment in accordance with equal employment opportunity guidelines. In addition, the applicant releases previous employers and job related sources from legal liability for the information provided.

Should an applicant be convicted of any crimes other than a minor traffic violation, all applicable information must be provided in the form of a police clearance report and court clearance report. Failure to admit any felony convictions may result in immediate disqualification or disciplinary action.

Section 25103, Chapter 25, Title 10 of the Guam Code Annotated requires college or university employees to undergo a physical examination, to include a test for tuberculosis (skin or x-ray), prior to employment and at least annually thereafter. A report of such examination must be conducted by a licensed physician within a state or territory of the United States and must be submitted upon request.

Federal law requires presentation of eligibility to work in the United States within seventy-two (72) hours of reporting for employment. Specifically, 8 USC 1324A requires the employer to verify the identity and eligibility to work in the United States of all newly hired employees. The University of Guam is required to comply with this law on a non-discriminatory basis. If you are hired to fill a position with the University of Guam, you will be required to present valid documents to comply with this law.

The University of Guam is an equal opportunity employer and provider.

The University of Guam complies with Public Law 24-109 in reference to the provisions and requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act. Assistance in EEO/ADA matters and inquiries concerning the application of Title IX and its implementing regulations may be referred to the University's Institutional Compliance Officer, located at the EEO/ADA and Title IX Office, Dorm II, Iya Hani Hall, Room 106, Telephone No. (671) 735-2244; TTY (671) 735-2243; or to the Office of Civil Rights (OCR).
